NDLI Club has organized workshop on the title "NDLI user awareness" to create awareness among the students on digital library usage and access. The principal Dr. C.N. Eswari preside over the program.

The workshop has commenced with invocation song by Aparna (I B.Sc Chemistry) followed by the key note address given by Dr.D.lakshmi, Associate Professor, Department of corporate Secretaryship. She has highlighted the features on NDLI pertaining to the resource information availability and the modus operandi of NDLI. She emphasized that the NDLI has collected the information from more than 170 institutions with which more than 1.72 crore contents of information available. Furthermore she noted that these knowledge resources are available to all the citizens of India at absolutely free of cost at any time anywhere and any one. Some important licensed books are also available in NDLI, cost of which is borne by the Government of India instead of the user which enhance the user to access it without any subscription. She stated the significance of NDLI including the users ranging from primary level to higher education level, edupreneurs, professional and research people etc.

During the workshop the students were given hands on training in digital library. The NDLI club members aided them to use the various e-contents available in the digital library. The students get practical exposures about the various ways in which they can search and collect the information. The workshop enhanced and enriched the knowledge of the students to access NDLI. About 100 students were the beneficiary of the program.
